Boys' Interscholastic Singles

The Farnam Cup (Also called The Ojai Valley Tennis Club Cup)

The oldest of the Ojai Valley Tennis Tournament perpetual trophies, it was first presented in 1902, and every available space is covered with the names of those who've won it, even the inside, the handles and the bottom. These later names were re-engraved on the pedestal plate.

III. Open Champions

Men's Open Invitational Singles

The All Comers Challenge Cup

Made of hammered copper and affectionately known as "The Ojai Cuspidor," this cup was first presented in 1906. Like all of the early trophies it is almost solidly engraved with the names of past winners.
